OSRS has farmed these breeds for 28 years; longer than any other farmer. OSRS has been producing rams for sheep farmers since 1954. Rams are vet tested, guaranteed. OSRS has performance recorded since 1960's and all flocks are SIL recorded.

- FIRST commercial farm to have Texel, Finn and Oxford sheep in NZ, wayback 28 years ago.
- FIRST to recognize the role of Finns and Texels as part of the mix with NZ genetics.
- FIRST to sell Finn-Texel rams.
- FIRST to arrange supply contracts which rewarded the users of Finn and Texel.
- FIRST to market Finn and Texel carcasses, large scale, to NZ and export markets.
- FIRST to market high bulk Texel wool to a processor and provide premiums for producers.
- FIRST to market bulky Texel wool to export markets.
- FIRST to promote stabilised crossbred sheep with fixed proportions of Finn, Texel and NZ genetics.
- FIRST to produce Texel Suffolk rams. OSRS rams have been top producers in Central Progeny Trials.
- FIRST to have eight months of lambing on one farm.
- FIRST to achieve seven natural sheep matings in eighteen months.
- FIRST to have an objective of six separate lambings per year without the aid of chemicals.
- FIRST to produce colourful, informative, proactive newsletters regularly.
- FIRST to have nine flocks performance recorded with SIL.

Meat Industry Excellence Group (MIE)

MIE will need your encouragement as opposition forms to resist change. MIE is focused. MIE is about a future for sheep farmers. One Stop Ram Shop clients have shown their support (almost 100%). In 2015 MIE wants every sheep farmer's support.

Think Finn!
All New Zealand ewes need a dash of Finn
Finn X ewes:

- Don't have bearings (except an odd one)
- Have some natural facial eczema tolerance (clinical FE has already been identified at Tapanui)
- Don't need flushing
- Perform predictably
- Produce few triplets (less than Coopworths)
- Carcasses yield well
- Finn cross ewes look like New Zealand sheep
- Please the bank manager
- Finn is the most widely used sheep breed in the world
